

LOOKING FOR ARCHITECTURAL MEANING IN FAROE

Architecture in the Faroe Islands could be experiencing an upturn in tandem with trends in other areas, notably music and food, where respecting one's own cultural heritage and geographical identity is fast becoming a major factor—an interview with Ósbjörn Jacobsen of Henning Larsen Architects.

BY BUI TYRIL

